DAILY TRIBUNE.
No. 55 CLARK STREET.
CITY OF CHICAGO.
Friday Morning, April 17, 1857.

To our local columns will be found an advertisement, which will be found an account of the sad fate of four sisters—leave parents—"remember," for necessary, and the ground of defense assumed by their advocate. He is of opinion, on the whole, that the case will be a very short one. Whether it may or may not terminate in a conviction, he does not for a moment doubt. He is sure, however, that the verdict will be one of acquittal.

It is understood that the Democratic party will not be represented in the Legislature, to any extent worth speaking of, at the next session. Their defeat at the polls—their utter overthrow—was so complete, that they have not the heart to make a struggle. Their leaders are disheartened, and their followers disgusted. Their organization is broken up, and they are without a head or a hope. Their defeat was not unexpected, but it was more overwhelming than the most sanguine Republican could have anticipated. Their party is dead, and will not be heard of again for years to come.

The Democratic party in this State has been for years a mere machine for the purpose of obtaining office and power. Its principles have been forgotten, and its organization has been used only for the purpose of securing the spoils of office. Its leaders have been unscrupulous in the use of the means at their command, and have not hesitated to resort to the most corrupt practices to secure success. They have been defeated by the people, and the people will not soon forget the lesson they have taught.

THE ILLUSTRATED
HOUSEHOLD EDITION
OF THE
WAVERLEY NOVELS.
DEDICATED TO
Washington Irving.

WE ARE NOW PUBLISHING A BEAUTIFUL EDITION OF THE
WAVERLEY NOVELS,
TO BE COMPLETED IN 48 VOLUMES,
OF PORTABLE SIZE IN 16mo FORM.

The Most Elegant Edition Ever Published.

It will be enriched with matter never before included in any issue of the Waverley novels; with a variety of curious and valuable introductions, collected and arranged exclusively for this "Illustrated Edition." The paper is of the finest quality that has been ever used expressly for this work. The type used will be illustrated with cuts of most plates lately engraved in the best manner, after drawings and paintings by the most eminent Artists—among whom are Birket Foster, Leslie, Landseer, Harvey, and Frost. The cuts will be written for, and drawn and engraved expressly for the author, with the utmost labor and excellence of the artist, with the sanction and advice of Washington Irving, being the fullest edition ever published.

The works of Walter Scott have incorporated themselves with the thoughts and concerns of the whole civilized world. They are read in every quarter of a country, and have had a controlling influence over things in which he lived. Who is there that, in looking back over a good portion of his life, does not feel the power of Scott acknowledging to his genius, and hearing his lonely sorrowful?

WASHINGTON IRVING.

The Household Edition of these works in one large and handsome volume, will be published in the course of the present month, and will be sold at the following prices:

In Half-Calf, Extra Binding, $7.25.
In Full Calf, Rich Gilt and Panelled, $8.50 per Vol.

The above type, designed to resemble in a measure the Caslonian of Harrison and the fair, strong paper, the neatly-engraved embellishments, many of them being from new designs, and the cut of the volumes, combine to give to the enterprise an attraction for readers which augurs a suitable reward for the publishers.
